Special thanks

To the victims that came forward and lent us all the evidence, this wouldn't have been possible without you. And my condolences that you had to go through this.
And special thanks to those who helped me put this document together.

To make it easier to write this document, we will call him Doc for short. Doc is the owner of a successful and popular Sonic fan project, Sonic Eclipse Online, or also known as "SEO Sonic Simulator" on the Roblox platform. Since it's on the Roblox platform, the target audience would be minors, of course. Game aside, Doc has a Discord server for said Sonic game, the invite to it being public on the Roblox page of the game. The server was set up in a way to normalize Doc's Racist and LGBTQ+-phobic views, if you disagreed with him, you'd be insulted and clowned on. However, Doc archived the general chat of the server and made a new one to clean his slate after some drastic changes to the server were made. He still keeps his racist and homophobic agenda outside of the server, though, which can usually be found on his Twitter. Any known females would be given their own role, “grill” which would usually make them a target of sexual harassment on his server by members and staff. Treating women like “objects" was most of that server’s sense of humor. (Other than throwing around the n word and making fun of autsitic people) I could be sitting here all day writing about all of these instances, but I’m writing this document mostly in the focus of his acts of sexual predatory behavior, specifically to minors. It’s important to clarify, though, that there is no proof of Doc doing anything illegal like sending nudes or soliciting nudes to the victims outside of these messages, and there isn’t really anything that could get the law involved, but what he did is not right for a 27-year-old male. Joke or not, what he did is not okay and he still showed himself off as a creepy, manipulative, and overall, scummy person. Doc has clearly shown no remorse for his actions and what he did to his victims, making jokes about it even today.

The first victim was 12 years old when contact was made in 2017. At the time, Doc was 24 years old. He would groom and degrade them both publicly on the Discord server and in private messages. The following screenshots have the victim’s identity redacted and identified as red for privacy as the victims wanted to stay anonymous. As far as we’re aware, she was the one he flirted with the most, and their history goes a long way as it was. They’d DM privately on a very consistent basis around September 2017 to January 2018 just to flirt with each other. This grown adult was normalizing such behavior for a young and naive child, and even despite her being noticeably into it, encouraging someone so young to even talk about stuff like that to you, or anybody, let alone privately or to a grown adult is NOT OK.

Context

The most recent victim “Deleted User” was a minor staff member for SEO. Unlike the previous victim and the victim you’ll see later on, She was at least, of age, though, at barely 18. She will also identify as blue.

Most evidence regarding this victim was lost as Doc archived the old general channel in his server, containing messages from 2017 all the way to June 2020. However, there was a lot. Doc liked to refer to her as his “playtoy” to fulfill his sexual desires.

Doc was constantly in the server, @ing her with hearts or just saying “(Her name) <3”

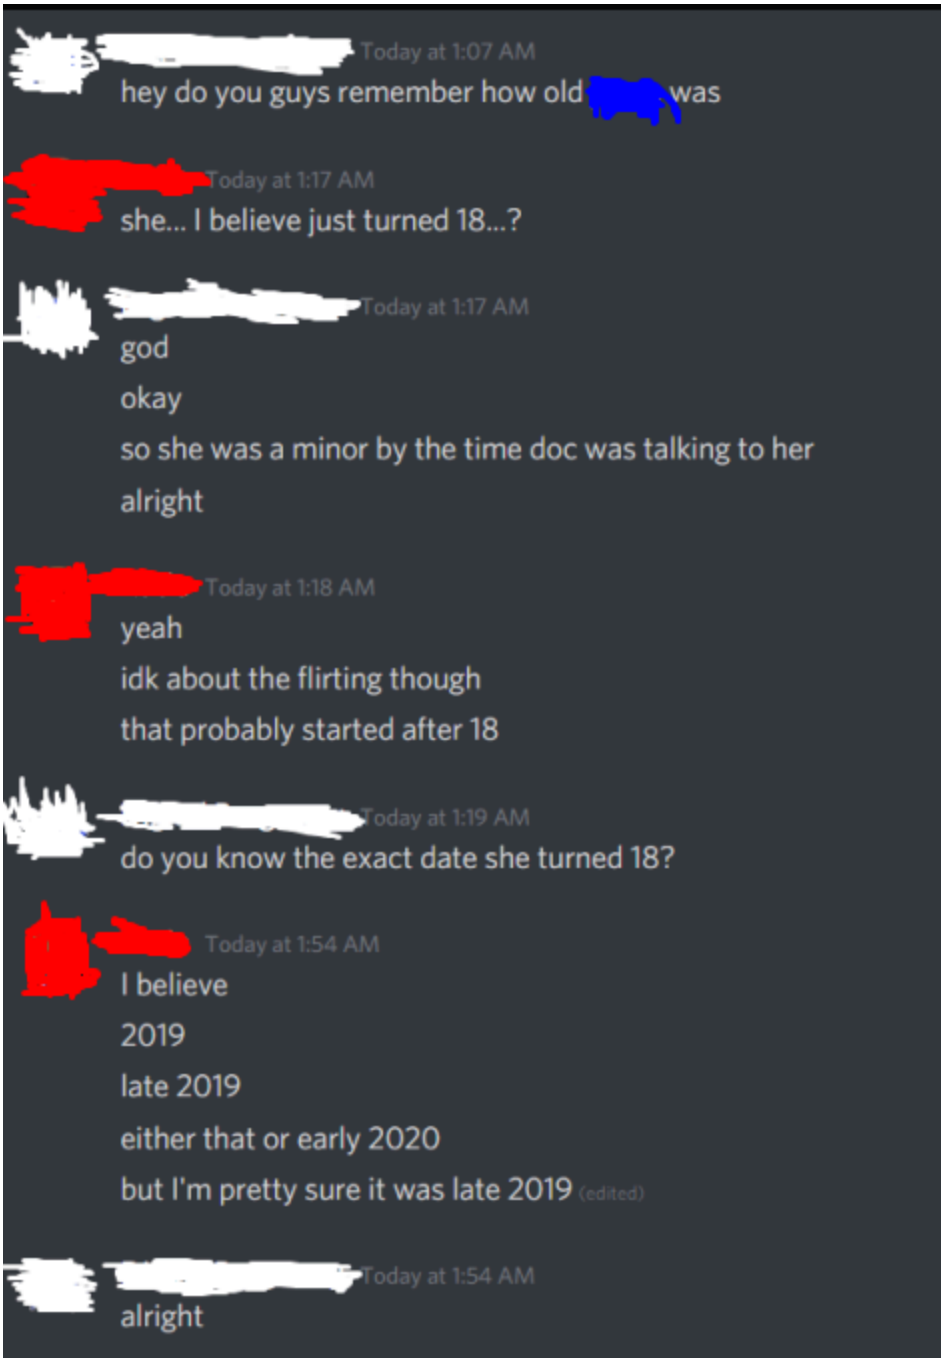
She would ask him what work he wanted her to do for SEO and he’d respond with gross things like “you could be my personal under the desk motivator”

One day she came in and all he would do is that and she flipped out, crying about how she didn’t want to be treated that way. As far as we were aware, we had never seen her actually “go along” with anything he said. For example, he’d do his usual “I could tie you up in my basement” and her response would be “I’d just escape.” There were also several incidents in which she quoted “What if I have a boyfriend?” which could be assumed it was just her testing the waters to see if pretending like she had a boyfriend would get Doc to back off.

He never gave her any work, which is all she ever asked for. She just wanted to work on modeling, particularly around a Sonic character “Amy Rose”, but he could not exist without bringing her up at least once, usually way more than once, and could not talk to her without being uncomfortably sexual towards her even though she CLEARLY was not interested in anything other than getting a little game development experience.

UPDATE

As of today we learned that this girl was actually 14 and lied about being 18 to Doc.



Down below is a conversation she had with Victim one. Stating how the situation made her feel.

[redacted] 03/25/2020
why exactly did you leave the server again if you don't mind me asking?

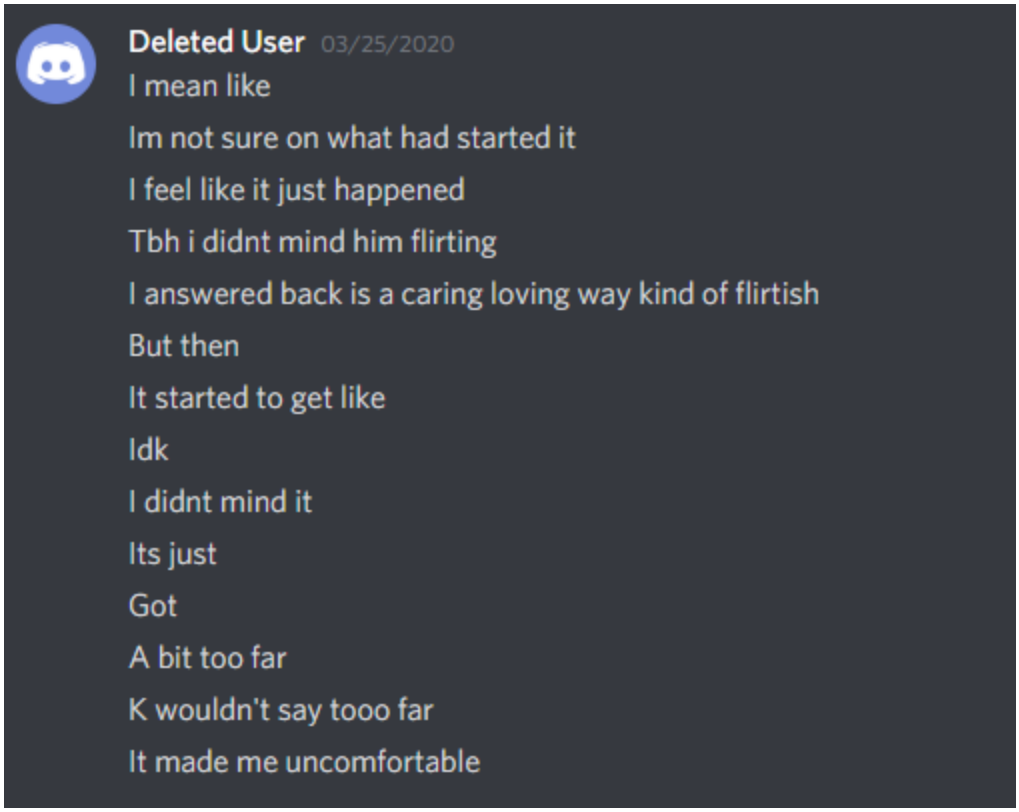
But honestly i dont
And i want to remain anonymous for now in seo
But still help out with its content



Below are some old leftover screenshots we still have from the old general chat before it was archived.

Context

This victim goes all the way back to 2017. A close friend of the first victim. She will be color-coded as yellow. There aren't many screenshots of them having sexual interaction, as most of them are either lost or didn't happen in text, to begin with. Below you will see a conversation of Doc pushing for a face reveal, despite her being clearly uncomfortable with it. Even trying to make her feel guilty for not trusting him with it. Just to clarify. She was 15 years old at this time.

Doc was always very sexual towards this girl despite her hating it. Doc would often degrade her sexually and non-sexually whenever he could, knowing she was sensitive and had very low self-esteem.

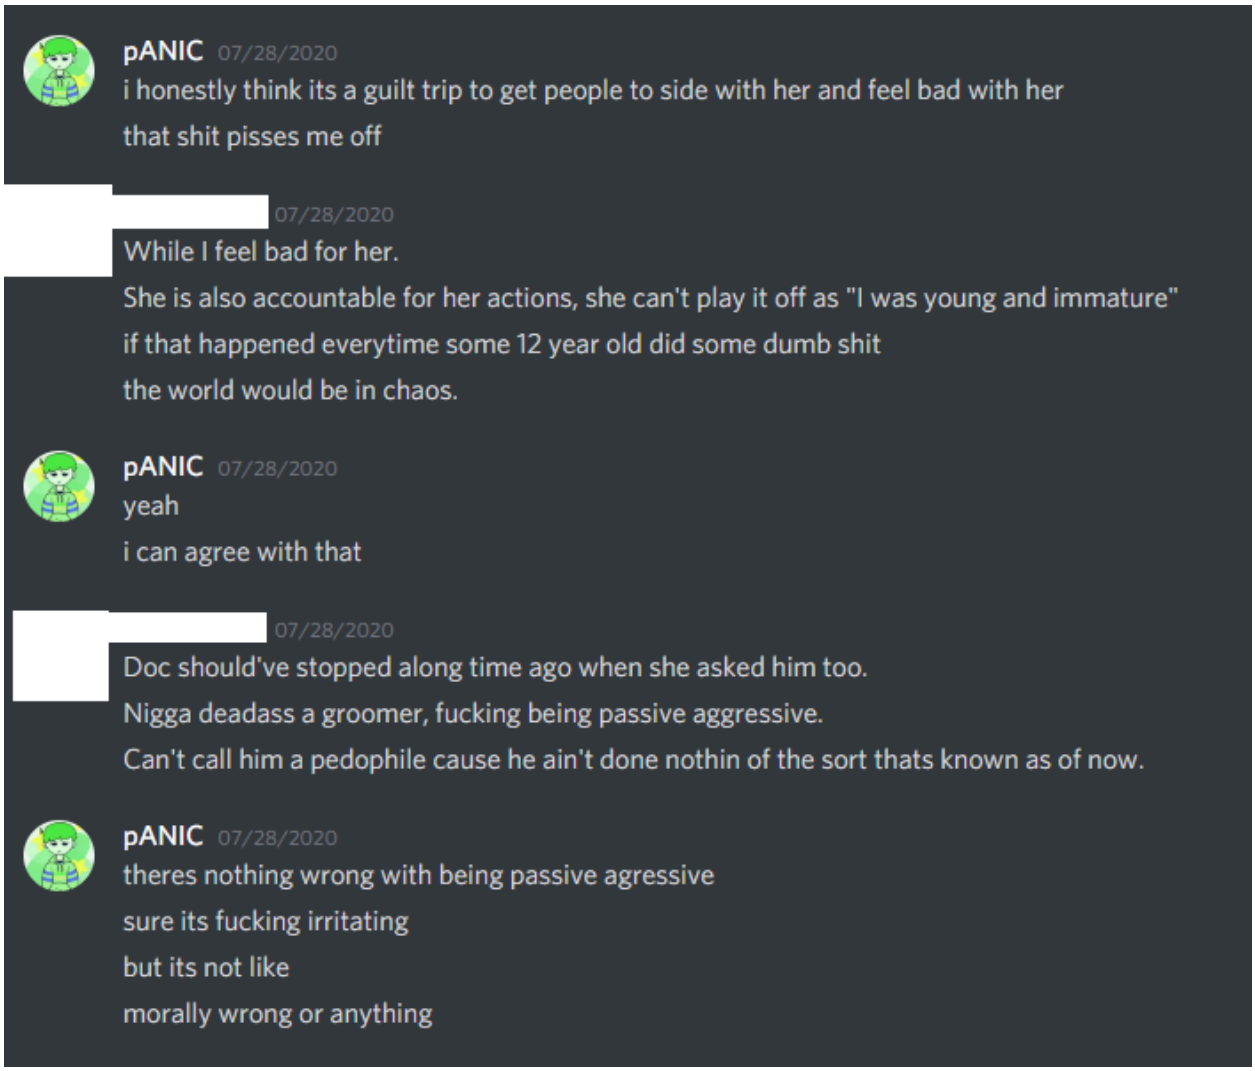
Manipulation

Doc would always manipulate his audience and staff members on his Discord to silence and cover up anything controversial that goes against him on his server as he builds up a weird following where the server “worships” him to the point where they will defend pedophilia and antagonise the victims.

Below is one known staff member Panic supporting Doc’s actions



Tl;dr they are blaming the 12 year old victim for the actions of a 27 year old manchild

Seriously how do you blame someone for being groomed? What kind of sick twisted fucked up head do you have to be in, unless you're being manipulated by someone to believe a twisted fucking lie. This shit makes my blood boil.

Another issue that really makes you think, is how he let Sonic Destiny, aka crazysonicfan110 into his server, a well known and popular Sonic youtube content creator who was recently outed as a pedophile. While Doc was well aware of the situation and how he could be endangering children in his server by keeping him in there. He doesn't do jack shit about it, but other staff members take note of this and kick him out, not only does he tell them off but he invites them back in because the pedophile makes him revenue. Really says a lot how doc really only cares about money.

Racism and Homophobia

Doc has tendencies to force his political opinions down his own staff and server's throats. This behavior is what also connects to him allowing racist words such as the "n word" and homophobic words such as the "f word". Doc isn't afraid to admit that he is against BLM and is against any people of LGBTQ+. A quick peek at his Twitter replies and you may see that he is constantly having arguments with anyone that disagrees with his views. Doc was suspended on Twitter in the past, but created a new account to continue his arguing. Doc quite obviously doesn't believe in oppression and shows disgust to any form of movement.

(Note: This is the same Twitter account that his ROBLOX profile links to).

Disagreeing with transgender people's human rights is transphobic, just as disagreeing with the rights of black people is racist, and disagreeing with the rights of homosexual people is homophobic

You have human rights though, do you just want superiority? No one in the US can stop you from being the way you want to be.

If you're gonna remove me off everything, at the very least let me wish you good luck on your future endeavors. Sorry for having an opinion.

"No one in the US can stop you from being the way you want to be." You know nothing about this movement at all or the problems we face.
